

The following publications contain useful information for property owners who are seeking help on how to maintain or renovate historic property. They are available at the Genesee County History Department, 3 W. Main St. in Batavia. The materials may be read on site and/or copied on site. They may not be checked out.

1. Common Bond, published by New York Landmark Conservancy—3 issues (1993, 1995)
2. Preservation Briefs, published by U.S. Dept. of the Interior—Nos. 1-14.
3. Keeping It Clear: Removing Exterior Dirt, Paint, Stains and Graffiti from Historic Masonry Buildings
4. Technical Series, published by Preservation League of New York State—Nos. 1-8.
5. The Old-House Journal—1974 (1 issue), 1976 (1), 1977 (1), 1978 (2), 1979 (4), 1980 (2), 1981 (3), 1983 (1), 1984 (1).
6. Adapting Old Buildings to New Uses, published by N.Y.S. Council on Architecture.
7. Preservation Briefs, published by U.S. Dept. of the Interior—Nos. 1-14.
8. House Notes, published by The Landmark Society of Western New York—49 different handouts.
9. How to Research an Old House, published in Americana.
10. Some Thoughts on Hiring an Architect, by John Bero.
11. Paint Color Research and Restoration, published by the National Park Service.
12. How to Inspect the Older House, published by Cornell University.
13. The Eight Most Common Mistakes In Restoring Houses (And How to Avoid Them), published by American Association for State and Local History.
14. Before Restoration Begins: Keeping Your Historic House Intact, published by American Association for State and Local History.
15. 40 Preservation Briefs Available From NY.S. Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation.
16. Choosing a Contractor, published by The Landmark Society of Western New York.
17. The Art of Getting Plastered.
18. Can I Paint My House Purple? The Dos and Don'ts of Preservation District Living, published by The Landmark Society of Western New York
19. Technical Notes, published by the National Park Service.
20. How to Care for Religious Properties, published by the Preservation League of New York.
21. Preservation Briefs, published by the U.S. Dept. of the Interior—Nos. 2, 9, 10, 16, 18, 21, 23, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 40.